

Recessed Guide Slope Chart Curved Inset

This diagram indicates when using the standard curved guide piece, you can obtain the desired depth into the deck by extending the guide out to the indicated length. This diagram needs to be strictly followed.

Deck elevations should return to Zero elevation (standard) at 6" outside of guides on both sides and follow that level completely around the pool cover housing.

